CORNELL SLUMP IS OVER.

Varsity Makes Three Touchdowns and Backfield Improves.

ITHACA. N. Y., Oct. 8 .- The first substantial evidence that Cornell was emerging from her early season slump came to day, when in a long scrimmage with the scrubs the Ithacans showed not only more dash and fight but considerably more knowledge of the game.

The varsity rolled up three touchdowns a consistent fashion, and both on the ne and in the backfield showed improvement. Champaign. Munns, Lahr, Lar-rowe and McCutcheon, the linemen, charged well and they made good sized holes, through which Miller, Philippi and Traegor made their way. Philippi was used for the first time as a halfback and made a good showing, exhibiting quali-ties as a line plunger of no mean merit, Miller played a hard game, making good through the line and getting off

Bates, one of the most promising half-backs, is laid up now as a result of injuries in the Oberlin game which did not at first seem serious. He may be out for some time. Coach Sharpe has adopted a new policy, dividing the training table as some time. Coach Sharpe has adopted a new policy, dividing the training table up into three sections with eleven men at the honor table and the others scattered according to ability they have shown. The varsity table is made up of Butler, O'Connor, Eyrich, Champaign, McCutcheon, Munns, Lahr, Larrowe, Miller and O'Hearne.

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 8 .- A stiff settinga thirty minute scrimmage was the order followed by Coach Cavanaugh in the afternoon football practice. Capt. Bennett appeared in the line for the to-day and took part in signal practice. In the scrimmage the first team showed little snap or life, being scored on twice by the second string men. Whitney was the longest yard gainer for the first team and D. Royers for the second term.

Long Serimmage at Hamilton.

CLINTON, N. Y., Oct. 8 .- The Hamilton squad was put through a long scrimmage on Steuben Field this afternoon in prepchi Steuben Field this afternoon in preparation for the Rochester game next Saturday. The scrubs have been coached in the Rochester style of play and to the disappointment of the coaches used it with damaging effect against the Varsity. Although several of the regulars were missing from the line Herman P. Olcott. head coach, and Tom Reilly, assistant coach, put the New York University squad through a hard drill yesterday afternoon lasting until nightfall. The majority of the absentees were from the downtown schools and included Torrence, centre: Dutcher, left end, and Smith, Braun and Thompson, halfbacks. Rashbaum, '14, shifted over to Torrence's place from his substitute position at centre on the scrubs; Merritt, '13, and O'Rourke, a new man from the School of Commerce, alternated in Dutcher's place, and Baker and Gardinello held the halfback positions unaided. Weiner, left tackle; Bristol, left guard, and Coleman, right end, were also not in the lineup.

Academy football squad was put through a particularly sharp period of practice this afternoon, the coaches paying particular attention to the back field men. Capt. Rodes, who has been out of the game most of the season, was in the lineup this afternoon and put a lot of life into the work. He was only kept in the game a short time, but was allowed to carry the ball on most of the plays. He gained consistently against a strong scrub. McReavey and Alexander, with Gilchrist gained consistently against a strong scrub.

McReavey and Alexander, with Glichrist

Willie Jones Outpoints White.

Ound end. Waller's work clearly demonstrated Cunningham's sagacity in saving a berth for him on the varsity, and judging from the way he tore through the freshman line to-day he bids fair to become one of the best ground gainers for the Tigers Emmons was back a quarter on the varsity, with Baker again at left end. Hoby Baker was in at right half, but remained in the fray only a short time, giving way to Doolittle.

Willie Jones of Brooklyn outpointed Jack White of Chicago in the final bout of, ten rounds at the New Star A. C. last in light. White crossed rights to the jaw and made use of a gentle jab that Willie practically ignored, while the latter slammed hard on the body with an occasional joint to the jaw. Jones had the better of six of the ten rounds, with one even and three for White.

In the semi-final of ten rounds Billy Bennett had a shade the better of Mel Coogan.
